Attorney A. C. Wolfe today wired Joseph E. Davies, federal commissioner of corporations, his declination of a position with the claims department of the United States department of justice.

The position was offered the La Crosse man by Mr. Davies who is President Wilson's advisor on matters relative to Wisconsin patronage and carried with it a salary of $8,600 per annum and all expenses. It is the position held by Judge Dodge before he went onto the Wisconsin supreme bench.

"I refused the offer," said Mr. Wolfe, "because I didn't want to leave La Crosse. The work would have called me away from home a good share of the time."

Mr. Wolfe is the second La Crosse man to refuse a responsible position with the federal department of justice, the other being John F. Doherty who was offered a position similar to that rendered Mr. Wolfe. Mr. Doherty declined the office and is a candidate for postmaster here.

Brewer, treasurer of the Western Union, said today.

NEW WELL WATER SHOWS HIGH TEST

Value as Health Beverage
Unexcelled Says State
Hygienic Labora-

DR. FURSTMAN GETS ANALYSIS

Takes Sample from Own
Home and One from Extreme End of North Side; Both Safe

That the city's new well water is perfectly safe for drinking and that it shows a higher test than any water from private wells in La Crosse was the assertion this morning of Health Commissioner J. M. Furstman following receipt from the state hygienic laboratory at Madison of analyses made of samples taken by Dr. Furstman.

The percentage of chlorine in the water was only 1.8 which is much lower than ever shown in other La Crosse waters.

Dr. Furstman's efforts to determine the quality of the water were thorough. He took a sample from his own home on South Tenth street. Realizing that that might not be a fair test—because he is in the center of a district where much water is used and the pipes, therefore, are being constantly flushed—he went to the extreme end of the north side and procured a sample from the residence of Alderman Roth on Loomis street. The main from which the last sample came is known as a "dead end" and the conditions there most unfavorable for pure water.

The hygienic laboratory says the sample from the Furstman home shows the water to be "safe and of good quality." On the sample from the north side the state department says "Safe."

"The results of the analysis," said Dr. Furstman this morning, "are especially gratifying and remarkable in view of the fact that the mains have not been flushed or cleaned in any manner."

BOARD OF CONTROL DECIDE

Convicts on All Outside Work Will Be Under Charge of Official of Prison

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—(Special.)—If the cities of Waupun and Chester and the intervening towns on the road connecting the two places co-operate the first state highway to be constructed by the use of prison labor will be built there. This was decided at a meeting of the state board of control, which has just concluded its sessions here. The last legislature appropriated $25,000 to make experiments with convict labor in road building. It is probable that prison labor will be used to build the roads to the tuberculosis camp near Tomahawk and also some roads within the forestry reserve. At the meeting of the state board of control this week considerable time was spent in discussing the subject and the board today gave out an official statement, telling its plans under the convict honor labor system. The statement concludes: "Convicts on all outside work will be under the direct charge and supervision of an officer of the state prison. It is contemplated that such officer shall be recommended by the highway commission and shall have engineering skill and ability to lay out highways and to control a camp of from thirty to forty convicts. The men to be employed in the convict camp will be selected by the officers of the Wisconsin state prison. The board of control has determined that under no consideration will convicts be leased to employers."

Torture of Captured Son
Extorted Big Sum but Villa Demands More
for His Life

EL PASO, Texas, March 6.—With the time at hand when his son, Colonel Luis Terrazas II, is to be shot unless a ransom of $250,000 is produced, General Luis Terrazas, the aged Mexican, today threatened to go to Chihuahua for the purpose of placing himself in the custody of General Francisco Villa, rebel leader, as a hostage for the son. The efforts of the aged man's family were all directed today towards preventing him from carrying out his plan. In their estimation it would result only in the general's death and would not bring the son's release.

Two Methods of Execution
Dispatches from Chihuahua say General Villa is considering two methods of execution, should the ransom for Colonel Terrazas be not forthcoming. One is the ordinary method of shooting by a firing squad. The other contemplates forcing the prisoner to go to Torreon when Villa's constitutionalists attack that city and of placing him in the front rank of the attackers.

Colonel Terrazas would be slain early in the Torreon battle in such a manner to make it impossible to ascertain whether he perished by bullets from the enemy or had been shot down by Villa's order.

War Makes Him Pauper

Despite the fact that he was once the "richest man in Mexico," and owned more than half the land and nearly two-thirds of the cattle in the whole vast state of Chihuahua, General Terrazas pleads that he has found it impossible to raise the $250,000 ransom demanded for his son by Villa. The reprisals made upon him since the revolutionary era set in three years ago have made such tremendous inroads on his once great fortune that so far as ready money is concerned, he is in the pauper class.

U. S. Consul Powerless

United States Consul, Marion Lether, who is still here, has been appealed to by the general to interfere, but says he is powerless to do so. He may take the matter up with Secretary Bryan, however.

Colonel Terrazas has been under arrest at Chihuahua for months. Originally General Villa demanded $500,000 ransom and much of this was produced, but only after the colonel had been tortured and lifted from the floor by a rope about his neck. The rebel chief recently gave the end Terrazas five days in which to procure $250,000, the time limit expiring today.

Huerta to Take Field
(By a United Press Staff Correspondent.)

MEXICO CITY, March 6.—Indications were considered strong here today that General Huerta is still planning to take the field against the rebels and consolidate the United States by selecting a successor acceptable to President Wilson.

The first actual step in this direction, according to those close to Huerta, was the appointment of Senor Jose De Portillo Y. Rojas as foreign minister in place of Querida Moseno. Rojas has not been in the Huerta party and he is friendly to the United States. It is said that Huerta intends to put Rojas in the provisional president's chair if the United States consents.

It was said today that Charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy has been consulted by Huerta in this regard and that the whole plan has been referred to the Washington government.

CITY GETS PICK OF INCOME TAX

Take the Cream and Leave the Skim Milk in the Shape of Bad Accounts to County

LAW DIFFERS FROM MILWAUKEEAN

He Will Insist that the City
Bear Seventy Per Cent of the Loss Due to Delinquents

A state wide controversy, involving hundreds of thousands of dollars, between the counties and cities of Wisconsin, is threatened today as the result of conflicting interpretations of amendments to the income tax law passed at the last session of the legislature.

Allege Joker in Law

County and city officials in all parts of the state are today getting busy on a study of the income tax amendments, following an opinion emanating from the city attorney's office at Milwaukee to the effect that a joker was slipped over on the counties at the last session whereby the cities will gather in the cream of the income tax and leave the skim milk for the counties.

The opinion rendered to the city treasurer of Milwaukee was that cities are entitled to 70 per cent of the income tax levy; that the state must receive 10 per cent of the income tax levy and that the city can then dump the delinquent income tax upon the county as part of the twenty per cent due the county.

Thus the county would be bearing all of the loss due to delinquent income taxes in the city. That is if the income tax levy of La Crosse county was $100,000, and $10,000 of this was delinquent, the city could pay 10 per cent or $10,000 to the state; retain 70 per cent or $70,000, and in payment of the county's 20 per cent, turn over the remaining $10,000 of collected income tax and $10,000 worth of bad debts in the form of delinquent income tax. In this case it would mean a loss of approximately $8,000 to the county and a gain of $8,000 to the city.

Law's Opinion Differs

District Attorney D. S. Law today declared that according to his opinion the city of Milwaukee is mistaken in its interpretation of the law. Mr. Law bases his conclusion on section 10873-23 of the revised laws, which makes provision for the division of collected income tax revenue, instead of income tax levy. As the result of his decision the county of La Crosse will insist that the city bear its full share—70 per cent—of the loss due to delinquent tax.

Keizer Agrees With Law

J. E. Keizer, county income assessor, today said that his interpretation of the law is that the income tax collected is divided first of all. After this the city should turn its list of delinquent income tax over to the county treasurer for collection. Seventy per cent of all of the delinquent income tax collected by the county treasurer is then to be refunded to the city.

City Attorney J. E. Hicbie today refused to express an opinion regarding the controversy.

GET RICH RUNAWAY

DETROIT, Mich., March 6.—Thirteen year old Everett Englehart, son of a Gary, Ind., millionaire, who had been missing from his home for more than a week and for whom police of many cities have been searching in the belief that he had been kidnapped, was arrested by Detroit police at noon today. He ran away.

APPROVE WILSON'S TALK

LONDON, March 6.—British government participation in the Panama Pacific exposition as a reciprocal for Wilson's toll repeal speech was urged today by many British newspapers. The press of all England was highly enthusiastic in its praise of the president.

COMMISSION SAYS MILWAUKEE ROAD FAKED RETURNS

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Vigorous condemnation of "falsified and irregular returns" by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railroads, as to income and expenditures, was contained in a report issued today by the interstate commerce commission. It was stated that these companies had not observed the commission's accounting rulings, and that in some instances their "fictitious statements" showed the income of the roads to be less than was actually the case; the expenses for labor less than the actual amount, and other manipulation which the commission declares made an inflation of the property account and at the same time made an unwarrantably good showing of returns for operation.

LA FOLLETTE IS COMING BACK TO PLAN NEXT STATE FIGHT OF THE PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICAN FORCES

PROGRESSIVE ONLY HOPE OF THE PARTY

La Follette Says G. O. P.
Must Unite on Sound Basis
or Lose the 1916
Election

HE RECITES SINS OF THE PARTY

Declares It an Ugly Fact that Corporation Abuses
Grew Up Under
Party's Regime

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—(Special.)—"Because that republican leadership which was directly responsible for economic wrongs under which the county suffers, divided and defeated progressive republican control, the people protested and registered their disapproval in the national election of 1912. Unless the republican party recognizes and accepts those self-evident and indisputable facts and 'gets together' on this basis, unless it advances under such tried progressive leadership as will insure a vitally sound and thorough-going progressive government, it cannot hope to win and it ought not to win the national election of 1916."

Recites Party's Sins

This is Senator La Follette's prophecy of the future of the republican party as a national organization. In announcing his views in a signed magazine editorial today, the senator recites some of the "sins of the party" that brought about defeat.

"Promised tariff revision was jugged for ten years," adds Senator La Follette. "Combinations, trusts, monopolies, holding companies, interlocking directorates, the control of credit and capital—the monster evils with which we are now grappling—came into being and grew to lusty power, almost wholly within the period of the two last republican administrations, and while republican leadership was dominant in both houses of congress."

Ugly Facts

"These are ugly facts. But they are the facts with which the republican party must deal openly, frankly, fearlessly before it can win back the confidence of the millions of men comprising the great body of that party. For these conditions the standard republican leadership must bear the responsibility. Not an act that strengthened monopoly had the approval of the seven million republican voters."

After reviewing in some detail the organization and advance of the progressive republican cause, Senator La Follette declares that the task of "getting together" can not be accomplished by "honeyed words and flimsy pretext."

ONE CENT LUNCH OPENS

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Denizens of the Boxery used to marvel at "Beefsteak John's" fifteen cent dinners, but here in Washington there is today a real penny luncheon. For one cent the weary Willies may have their choice of bean soup, hominy, baked potato or fresh rolls. One cent also buys a cup of coffee, milk and sugar, cost another penny. Three cents will buy beef or lamb stew, or frankfurters. The penny lunch is an adjunct to the Washington Mission. About three hundred meals are served there daily.

CONVICTS BALLOT CROOK

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 6.—Supported by the precedent of a verdict of guilty against William Huffman, former councilman, Special Prosecutor Joseph Roach was expected to push similar charges of election frauds in stuffing ballot boxes against Mayor Donn Roberts and others. Huffman must serve a sentence of from three to ten years in the penitentiary unless an appeal to the Indiana supreme court reverses this court's action.

FREEDOM IS BRIEF

Mike Morrissey, whose sentence of fifteen days in the city jail for drunkenness expired at 2 o'clock this afternoon, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for the same offense when arraigned before Judge John Brindley early this afternoon. Morrissey was given his freedom yesterday morning, a day and a half in advance, for good behavior. Last night he returned to the city jail drunk again.

Crime

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 6.—John Lucas, paymaster for the Brown Shoe company was held up at the entrance to the company's factory at the southeast corner of Eighteenth street and Washington avenue this afternoon, by two well dressed young men, and robbed of $10,000, the factory payroll for the week. Lucas and R. D. Corlett, another employee of the company, had just arrived at the factory from the company's store, Seventeenth and Washington avenue, with the money. As they stepped from the company's automobile, in which they had driven from the store, two young men pointed revolvers at them and demanded the money. Lucas turned it over without parley.

While covering Lucas and Corlett with their revolvers, the bandits jumped into the automobile and ordered the driver to take them away. Then enforced the demand with revolvers at the chauffeur's head.

They beat up the chauffeur and abandoned the automobile near the McKinley bridge, boarding a street car.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Shot through the stomach in a desperate gun fight with three burglars in Brooklyn early today, Policeman Thomas Wynn is dying in St. John's hospital. Beside him is George Stevens, eighteen, a burglar, shot through the chest and in the Swedish hospital is William McHenry, 25, a burglar, with a fatal bullet through his back. All three are expected to die.

There were three burglars in the gang who were routed out of a drug store at Putnam and Tompkins avenues. The third thief, James Martin, alias "Wooden Leg Jimmie," was beaten into submission after his pals fell, and was captured.

The battle started when Policeman Stack discovered the robbers. He whistled for help and, as the robbers ran, opened fire. With the hue and cry on their heels the three fled right into Wynn's arms and at close range dropped him with a bullet in the abdomen. Fatally hurt, Wynn dropped to the sidewalk but propped himself up on the curb on his elbow and his first shot brought McHenry down. Another bullet from the dying policeman's gun stopped Stevens and Martin, amid a hail of bullets, fled like a deer until he was tackled and downed by another policeman whose beat he crossed.

Simmons declared that he would return without requisition.

Leaders from All Parts of the State Could Gather at Capital and Plan
Campaign

That Senator Robert M. La Follette will return to Wisconsin in the immediate future and thresh out the whole political situation with the progressive republicans from every quarter of the state is a statement emanating from Madison on high political authority. Asked to verify this statement today, Lieut. Gov. Tom Morris said:

"I have no authority to speak for Senator La Follette. However, I know the matter has been under consideration, and tentative plans to this end may have become a definite arrangement within the past few days."

Just Back from Capital

The lieutenant governor's interview is significant, in view of the fact that he has just returned from Washington, where he was in conference with Senator La Follette, Louis D. Brandeis and other progressive republican leaders. That plans for La Follette's return to the state were there discussed is undoubtedly the fact.

The Madison informant relates that "Bob's" coming means a revival of the old progressive organization, with the old enthusiasm and the old fighting spirit that has won so many battles in the past. It means the groundwork for a complete canvass of the state by La Follette in a speaking campaign during the active period of the campaign.

Suggest Meeting

It has been suggested that a great meeting be held at Madison during the senator's stay, to which all his old friends from over the state will be bidden, and it is expected that the scenes of the "pilgrimage" of progressives to the senator's farm in Madison, upon his return from his first senatorial session, will be reenacted. At that time, right after the senators had hazed him by leaving the senate during his maiden speech on railroad rates, and after the trying times of his powerful debate on that subject, the senator's health had so failed that he was about to undergo an operation at the Mayo hospital, Rochester, Minn.

People in the state thronged to that meeting, and eastern magazines had staff representatives there to prepare stories of the incident. The result was a wonderful re-awakening of interest.

The denial that La Follette will come before the end of the congressional session, published yesterday, is positively discredited by later reports.

"BLACK TONY" GETS LIFE

OMAHA, Neb., March 6.—The jury in the case of "Black Tony" Claretta, the 19 year old Joliet, Ill., youth, accused of the murder of Henry E. Nickell, during the holdup of a local resort on the night of January 15, last night brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

If home rule is enacted a third time by the commons, it will become law by virtue of the veto act, despite the rejection by the lords.

THE TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

GERALDINE'S GOWNS

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS

(Copyright, 1914, by the McClure

Newspaper Syndicate.)

Geraldine looked over her artistic wardrobe and made her selections. It was Geraldine's habit to sell all of the gowns that she had appeared in more than three times. She had won her reputation partly because of her exquisite dressing and partly because she was just naturally clever at recitation and unduly beautiful to look upon.

It was economy that had first prompted Gerry to dispose of her gowns. She was not especially fond of her profession as a society entertainer and she longed for the day when she could retire on the small sum that was gradually augmenting in value in the bank.

The gowns, expensive necessarily, brought in an attractive sum of money every six months when they were sold to private customers. Some went to theatrical women, some to artist's models and many to women who scorned the second-hand shops, yet took advantage of Geraldine's advertisement.

Geraldine sighed softly as she noticed the slight rim of dust that edged the train of her old gold chiffon. It was one of her favorites, yet that dusty train signified its doom. She could not possibly trail about the Fifth Avenue and Riverside drive homes with that untidy mark.

She gazed longingly at the gown with its tunic of old gold lace and sable, but put it determinedly with the ones for sale.

"I hope," mused Gerry, "that Miss Vale will fancy that gown. It would look wonderful with her Titian coloring."

Miss Vale was the model of a modern illustrator and had more than once renewed her wardrobe from Geraldine's sales.

"Vance Gray is the most critical artist I have ever posed for," the model had once informed Gerry. "He demands new costumes at every sitting. It all but keeps me broke," she added. "Guess he thinks I got nothing to do but buy new rags."

And it so happened that Miss Vale, did pounce upon the old gold gown the moment her eyes beheld it.

"That's a stunner!" he cried delightedly. "Gray will go right up in the air over that color. He raves over clothes worse than a woman."

"I hope he will like that," Gerry laughed, "it is my own favorite."

"Well, you will probably see it illustrating one of the best sellers soon. Gray is reading the manuscript now. Jim Donovan and I are going to pose for eight illustrations for it." The girl blushed prettily. "Jim's gotta wear evening clothes and Gray has given him an old one of his."

"Good luck to all of you," laughed Gerry as the model departed with her precious bundle.

Another sigh fell from Gerry's lips. She had let the flock go at a bargain price because she thought Miss Vale had little enough money to spend on anything.

"My castle of retirement is slightly nearer anyway," she mused.

That evening she was to entertain the dinner guests of the Smedley Browns. Geraldine decided to wear her new ravishing toilette of dove gray.

When during the evening Vance Gray, the noted illustrator, saw her, he thought he had never seen any

Hooray! Blood Free of Impurities

Eczema Gone! Acne, Tetters, Rash, Pimples, Carbuncles, Boils—Banished!

It is certainly remarkable how quickly the action of S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, shows itself in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue, and the cause of disease is just as constantly being removed, scattered and rendered harmless.

You will be surprised and delighted at the quick change if you will use S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. Its action in the skin is quite sensational. These facts are most fully explained in a book on "S. S. S.," sent by the Swift Specific Co., 213 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores, and a bottle today and banish all skin afflictions.

When you ask for S. S. S. look out for the common trick of trying to sell you something else. Don't be misled.

one so ethereally lovely. Her pale gold hair was like a moonbeam framing her delicate, oval face.

"Who is she?" he questioned his nearest neighbor.

"Geraldine Innes," the other replied. "Rather a stunner, is she not?"

"Stunner is not the word," answered Gray. "She is the most perfect specimen of the feminine gender I have ever looked upon."

"She is noted for her clothes," said the other, "a well as her clever impersonations and song recitations."

Vance Gray continued to study Gerry from the artistic point of view. When he met her later in the evening and saw the peculiar little smile in her eyes he wondered at it.

"Vance Gray," mused Gerry, "I suppose he will recognize my costumes on his model—if he is observing and if we are to meet from time to time."

"I will be delighted if you will come to tea, in my studio, Miss Innes," the artist said.

Gerry laughed. "It will be a great pleasure," he replied. "My gowns have already been in your studio," she added, with smiling lips.

Some one called away and, before Gray could fathom her meaning, she nodded adieu to him and was gone. He watched the graceful lines of her gown as she crossed the room, and the artist in him longed to paint her.

During the following months Geraldine and Vance Gray met from time to time. She purposely avoided being much with him, whether from caprice or merely because she did not want to answer the question in his eyes, she knew not.

She continued, however, to sell her gowns to his favorite model, and somehow Geraldine took infinite pleasure in the knowledge that he was finding them beautiful.

"He went nutty over that gray dress," Miss Vale informed Geraldine. "Raved about clouds and moonbeams and the like. Glory! He would go clear off his head—if he ever saw you in it!" she added in frank admiration. "Your gowns must bring me luck. My time is all taken from 8 in the morning to 6 at night."

"My own is pretty well taken, too," laughed Gerry. "In fact, I am making so much money now that I am going to give you my gowns instead of selling them—that is, if you will take them."

In the end Geraldine was compelled to answer the question she had seen growing in Vance Gray's eyes. It was at the Burden's tango tea that he approached her with determination in his face.

"Miss Innes," he said, "the artist in me has fallen desperately in love with a number of gowns; the man in me has fallen even deeper in love with one of the women whom those same gowns adorn." He laughed, but there was seriousness, too, behind his banter. "I am consumed with curiosity. Some evenings I have left you in a ravishing toilet and the next day my model appears in a duplicate. Tell me the riddle, won't you?"

Gerry blushed daintily, just as Gray would have had her blush.

"They are not duplicates," she said. "I dispose of my gowns and the artist in you has fallen in love with them." She turned swiftly away because Gray's eyes told her he wanted to take her in his arms.

"And the man in me," he told her softly, "has fallen in love with you."

"Then—my gowns and I will have to love the artist and the man, I suppose," she admitted generously.

Misery loves company, but it is apt to be a caes of unrequited affection.

DECIDE STATE IS NOT EXTRAVAGANT

Franklin Club Unanimous that Expenses of Wisconsin Are Not Too High

TELL OF WORK DONE BY BOARDS

Affirmative Attacks on the Commissions Met with Showing of Accomplishments

After a spirited discussion characterized by a host of personal jabs and consequent rising to points of order, the affirmative last night yielded to the opposition in their efforts to prove their assertion that the expenses of the state of Wisconsin are unnecessarily high before the Franklin club. The jury decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

Says Expenses Climb
Leading off on the affirmative, C. L. Alleman gave figures attempting to show that the expense of running the different commissions of the state had increased between fifty and one hundred per cent in the last five years. He maintained that the duties of a number of commissions overlap and that a number of the commissions could easily be combined. The increased expenses, he said, are grossly out of proportion with the increase in population and the work done.

Otto Schlabach, leader of the opposition, took exception to some of the figures of Mr. Alleman and also to the attacks of the affirmative on the various commissions of the state. He asked the affirmative what commissions he would suggest eliminating. The dairy commission, he showed, costs the state but a trifle more than the commissions of other states cost, although there are more cheese factories and creameries in Wisconsin than in all the neighboring states combined. The state taxes for 1913, he said, were $7,555,000, of which $3,923,000 was returned to the counties in the form of roads, bridges, rural, graded and high schools, etc.

Tell Good Done

H. G. Hayden and Dr. A. R. Kemper on the negative presented the arguments that in the last few years university extension has been instituted and the number of state schools for the deaf, dumb and blind have doubled. Furthermore the penitentiary and reformatories have been enlarged and improved, adding to the necessary expenditures of the state. Also the new capitol and the building activities at the university, which are absolutely necessary, have increased the taxes in the last few years.

Furthermore, the high cost of living affects the state as well as the individual and the state is forced to expend more now for the same items than it did ten years ago.

The club next week will have for their subject, "Resolved, that a law should be enacted providing for a minimum wage of $7.00 per week for women." The high school team, which recently won from Viroqua on the subject, led by Leland Mahoney, will take the affirmative. W. E. Barber, H. G. Hayden and Harry Robinson will comprise the opposition.

The Treatment of Influenza or La Grippe

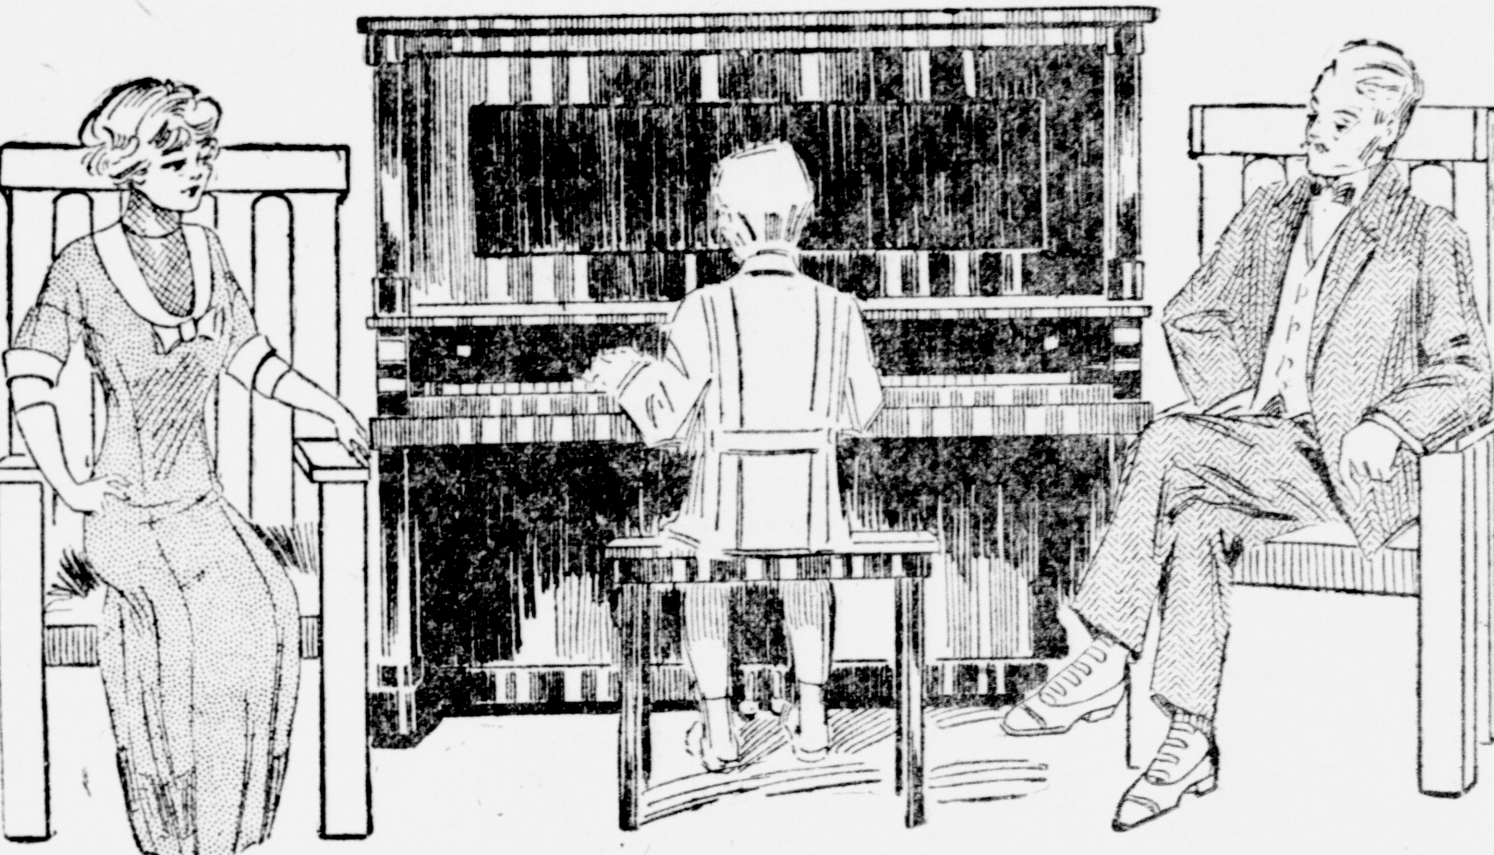

It is quite refreshing these days to read of a clearly defined treatment for Influenza or La Grippe. In an article in the "Lancet-Clinic," Dr. James Bell, of New York City, says he is convinced that too much medication is both unnecessary and injurious. When called to a case of la grippe, the patient is usually seen when the fever is present, as the chill which occasionally ushers in the disease, has generally passed away. Dr. Bell then orders that the bowels be opened freely with salts. "Aetioide" or citrate of magnesia. For the high fever, severe headache, pain and general soreness, one Anti-kamnia Tablet every three hours is quickly followed by complete relief. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headache, neuralgia and all pains. P. S. A-K Salve for skin troubles.

CARTRIDGES AS NAILS

ARMS EXPORTER PLEADS GUILTY TO SHIPPING 300,000 ROUNDS TO CARRANZA IN NAIL KEGS

NEW YORK, March 6.—George Nordenholt, exporter of arms and ammunition, with offices in Broadway, today pleaded guilty to shipping 300,000 rounds of cartridges to a Carranza agent in Naco, Arizona, consigned falsely as nails. Nordenholt, whose sentence was postponed, admitted that he shipped the goods immediately after President Wilson lifted the embargo on exportation of munitions of war into Mexico from the United States. Several other arrests on similar charges are expected to follow.

SKILLET HAT APPEARS

NEW MODES OF HEADGEAR FOLLOW CLOSELY LINES OF WELL KNOWN KITCHEN UTENSILS

NEW YORK, March 6.—If you see a young woman with what appears to be a gigantic cymbal or an inverted skillet hanging perilously to the side of her head, don't laugh. Investigation will likely prove that she is wearing one of the real swaggers hats being exhibited here.

Bumping with great gusto into the pun column it may be said that the lid was taken off for society women at the Ritz-Carlton today where the collection of Paquin gowns and other feminine whatcha-macallis are being exhibited. A majority of the hats are small.

With one gown exhibited today the model wore the skillet hat. It sits as far on one side of the head as the law of gravity will permit, the long handle holding skyward and tipped by something or other which milliners probably have a name for. Then the cymbal hat. It's regular lid—vast flat plain with a little round knot at a cymbal in the center which serves as a crown.

The general effect of having opened a huge oyster and put one of the half shells on the side of the head was presented in another hat. "Shells" are prevented from closing up on the head of the wearer by dainty chin straps which would prevent any great movement either way.

Going back to the kitchen, some one hit on the lid of a roasting pan as a good pattern for a hat, and it was exhibited with the others. The lid goes on the head just as it would go on the pan.

DOUBT IF POST'S TRIP WAS NEEDED

ROCHESTER, Minn., March 6.—A doubt as to whether the special train which bore C. W. Post, the multi-millionaire, half way across the continent was necessary, was expressed by surgeons connected with the Mayo Brothers' hospital here, following an examination of the cereal manufacturer this afternoon. Post was taken to the Kahler hotel here at noon, having remained in his private car until the big crowd of curious people gathered around the depot dispersed. Dr. C. W. Mayo will not examine Post until late this afternoon, but has placed the millionaire in the hands of his most skilled assistants who are making a careful diagnosis of the case.

FAVOR REPEAL OF TOLL EXEMPTION

Interstate Commerce Committee Majority with Wilson As He Asked Yesterday

ESCH ALSO AGAINST FREE TOLL

Local Congressman One of Four Republicans Voting with President's Supporters

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Responding to President Wilson's message for repeal of the free tolls clause of the Panama canal act, the house interstate commerce committee today favorably reported the Sims repeal resolution.

Only four committeemen voted against it. Representatives Dornus of Michigan, Knowland of California, Lafferty of Oregon, and O'Shaughnessy of Rhode Island.

In addition to the four who voted not to repeal the exemption clause, three other democrats who were absent today are known to be against it.

Four republicans, Representatives Stevens of Minnesota, Esch of Wisconsin, Willis of Ohio, and Hamilton of Michigan, voted with the democrats in favor of repeal. The democrats who voted for the repeal were Representatives Adamson, Sims, Talcott, Stephens of Nebraska, Barkley, Keyburn, Montague and Decker.

Representative Lafferty, who was absent today, had asked to be recorded against the repeal plan.

Chairman Adamson said he would make an early effort to bring the repeal resolution before the house, and that a special rule might be used.

Representative Dornus, who is chairman of the national democratic congressional campaign committee, said that a democratic caucus of the house is not planned in the fight to defeat the president's program.

BOY CHAMPS GO TO MEET STARS

NEW YORK, March 6.—If the king of England, the Gaekwar of Baroda, Czar Nicholas of Russia, and Emperor William had all been passengers on the incoming Lusitania this morning, all would have been completely and smotheringly snubbed by at least twenty-four squirming, wriggling, happy persons who went down the bay on the tug Niagara, hired by the Chicago delegation to say welcome home to the world touring White Sox and Giants.

The youthful "welcome homers" are members of the Juniors and the Midgets, the two winning teams of the 1,000 nines which participated in the New York interpark series. They were furnished baseball suits for the occasion. Every boy was away ahead of time at the Niagara's wharf which she left at 6 a. m. All had been promised a handshake with John J. McGraw, "manager of de Giants."

SAND ENGULFS AND KILLS MAN

NEGAUNEE, Mich., March 6.—Overtaken by a run of sand in the Maas mine at Negaunee, John Juhula, 37 years old, a miner, was instantly killed. Juhula and five other men had received a warning that the sand was running and had climbed a ladder for safety. It was soon seen the sand would bury the ladder and all fled to another part of the mine except Juhula, who was caught by the cave-in.

24TH IS DATE FOR COMMUNITY FEAST

Will Limit Guests to 300 Is Decision of the Backers Last Night

SECOND BANQUET TO BE HELD

Another Like the First Is Planned to "Accommodate the Overflow"

March 24 has been decided upon as the date for the big farmers' banquet and Germania hall is the place.

This is the announcement made today by H. Clay Evenson, chairman of the committee on arrangements and the man who originated the idea of businessmen banqueting their rural friends and getting the farmers' candid opinion on how the city should be run.

A reception will be held at the Germania from 10 to 12 in the morning. Dinner will be served promptly at noon.

As a result of the enthusiasm and the prospects that there may be more than can be accommodated the guest list has been limited to 300. It has been decided to hold a second farmers' banquet to which those not present the first time, may be invited.

"There will be plenty of speaking," said Mr. Evenson, "but Mr. Farmer is going to do the talking. They are going to tell La Crosse business men just what they think of the city and how they think it could be improved. The businessman is going to sit back and listen."

The list of "live ones" today is as follows: Boyer-Furber Furniture Co., O. J. Oyen, Hoeschler Bros., E. R. Barron Co., Scott-Rose Co., Doerflingers, Fred Dittman Hardware Co., Continental Clothing House, Peter Newburg, J. S. 100 of Guests at Viroqua Affair Yesterday Are Visiting Delegates

More than three hundred Masons were in attendance at the dedication ceremonies of the new Masonic temple at Viroqua yesterday. Fully 100 of the attending Masons were visiting delegates from lodges in surrounding cities and towns. The La Crosse lodge was represented by eleven visiting delegates.

The chief function of the occasion was the dedicatory banquet held in the new temple of the La Belle lodge No. 84, at which addresses were delivered by several of the most prominent Masons in Wisconsin.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by W. W. Perry, grand secretary, Milwaukee, who spoke on the value of Masonry. The banquet program follows in full: W. N. Coffland, toastmaster. La Belle Lodge, Past and Future, H. P. Proctor; The Ladies, L. C. Boyle; Our New Home, Its Mission, C. J. Smith; Brotherly Love, Rev. R. T. Bayne; Our Guests, Aug. E. Smith; Plumb, Square and Level, Colonel C. M. Butt; Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. F. M. Townner; Address, Grand Secretary W. W. Perry.

Following the banquet which came to a close at 11 o'clock a ball was held at which nearly 400 persons were present.

The La Crosse delegation, consisting of the following, returned from Viroqua this morning, loud in their praises of the royal entertainment extended by their brother Masons of Viroqua: C. E. Schaefer, B. F. Keeler, J. E. Langdon, O. Elbertson, D. R. Drake, H. Skogstad, T. Ubbelohde, J. G. Robb, F. A. Grover, H. M. Curtis and T. Merkle.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR WIFE-SLAYER

William C. Ellis Considers that Escape from Gallows Is Virtual Victory for Him

CHICAGO, March 6.—William Cheney Ellis, Cincinnati manufacturer, was convicted last night of the murder of his wife at a local hotel and given a term of fifteen years in the penitentiary. He will not ask a new trial, and will not appeal from the sentence, his attorney, George Remus, said today.

"We consider," said Remus, "that the verdict was a victory of the defense and that on a second trial Ellis might not be so fortunate."

The motion for a new trial for Ellis will probably be formally passed on by Judge Pettit and overruled. As the defense has no hope or desire to overthrow the verdict, it may be decided to withdraw the motion, which Remus admitted today was merely formal and not expected to be sustained, before the judge acts.

JUDGE THREATENED IN I. W. W. FIGHT

Despite Promises to Take His Life He Sentences Church Raiders to Workhouse

NEW YORK, March 6.—Despite threats of death to himself and of destruction of his mansion and residences on Riverside drive if he jailed any of the I. W. W. church raiders, arrested night before last, Magistrate Campbell today sent Joseph Albers to the workhouse for thirty days.

Albers was the first of the 191 men arrested to be tried today in Chief Magistrate's court in Mulberry street. He was found guilty of rioting and disorderly conduct on the testimony of the policemen who made the wholesale arrest. Only ten of the prisoners were taken to court for trial today.

A threatening letter which purported to come from friends of the "church raiders" was replete with blasphemy and unprintable epithets for Magistrate Campbell and all property owners of New York.

Apparently chastened by the activities of the police and the decision of Chief Magistrate MacAdoo that he would give them the limit, the I. W. W. "army" was quiet today. No church raids were made last night.

GET STATISTICS ON RAILROAD CONTROL

68 Per Cent of Roads Asking Increase Are Owned by 12 Big Systems Says Expert

WASHINGTON, March 6.—A maze of diagrams and statistics showing the intercorporate control of eastern railroads and the interlocking directorates by which the big lines dominate the smaller lines, was put in evidence at the advance rate hearing before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Harlan today by Frank J. Warne, expert railroad accountant.

Of 897 separate and distinct roads asking for a five percent increase, 60 or 68 per cent are controlled by 12 big systems, the New York Central controlling 118 and the Pennsylvania 112, according to the witness. Many of the remaining 291 roads are controlled by still other systems and some nominally independent were shown to be "economically dependent" on one or the other of the twelve big roads cited.

PHYSICIANS MAY LIFT ETHICAL BAN

Council of American Medical Association Takes the First Steps to Revise the Code

ADVERTISING IS ONLY PUBLICITY

Question to Be Decided at National Convention at Atlantic City This Year

CHICAGO, March 6.—Steps have been taken here at a meeting of the council on health and public instruction of the American Medical Association which may result in the removal of the ethical ban on newspaper advertising. After a long discussion, in which the drift of argument was practically unanimous in favor of the revision of the ethical code, the council decided to place the question before the national house of delegates of the American Medical Association at its annual convention in Atlantic City, N. J., this summer.

This is the first time the point has ever received official recognition from the organized medical interests of the country, and those who favor it declare that it means the removal of the barrier between recognized medical men and institutions and the advertising columns of the secular press. The meeting was held at Congress hotel.

Discuss Code

The discussion was led by Dr. J. W. Pettit, medical director of the Ottawa tuberculosis colony, who said in part:

"There is no precept of our code which meets with such universal approval and the infringement of which is so quickly resented by the reputable element of our profession as the one which prohibits advertising of that fraudulent and offensive kind which is so justly obnoxious to the ethical sense of every honorable and self-respecting physician. Our position on this question needs no defense or even explanation, involving as it does the fundamental principle that fraud and deceit are always and unequivocally wrong, and never more so than when practised upon the defenseless sick and ignorant."

Advertising Simply Publicity

"Advertising in its best sense is simply publicity. It is the element of fraud, intentional or otherwise, which makes advertising by our profession so objectionable, but advantage will accrue to the publicity given to meritorious work done by the physician."

"The removal of the stigma which now attaches to newspaper publicity is the only way to establish that relation between the two professions absolutely necessary to cordial co-operation. If we modify our ethical rules by permitting publicity, but not advertising, it is reasonable to assume that members of the press will take the position that they do not care to co-operate with members of a profession who are so 'unco' guided and rigidly righteous' that they cannot associate on equal terms."

Union With Press Urged

"The question that presents itself to us for solution is this: Shall we refuse to make legitimate use of the press because others, as we believe, use it illegitimately? There is nothing more useful and necessary to remove ignorance and misapprehension than authentic information. If the public is left to secure such information as it may from quack and patent medicine advertisements, it is very inconsistent for us to complain if the information is misleading."

"The united action of the press and the medical profession in the present crusade against tuberculosis is a striking example of what can be done by a union of forces which had hitherto stood apart. By the aid of the press we have accomplished more within a few years than could the medical profession unaided by the press in a quarter of a century."

"In any readjustment of our relation to the press in this matter we must bear in mind that we incur a great risk of bad men in our profession misusing this privilege to the advantage of the public and the discredit of the press and the medical profession. The remedy is simple. A bureau of medical information under the auspices of the American Medical Association can be organized which shall furnish information to the press free and also censor advertising matter."

"We have been vainly attempting to secure the establishment of a national department of health with a medical man as a member of the cabinet. If we could only secure the assistance of the press, it is a foregone conclusion that we will succeed."

PRISON GRADED SCHOOLS OPEN

LINCOLN, Neb., March 6.—Under the supervision of State Superintendent Delzell, the night school at the Nebraska penitentiary has just been organized, and for the first time in the history of the institution the classes today are on a basis similar to those in the graded schools, and the convict pupils are striving to gain admission to the grades above them. There are six grades or divisions, the last one including those whose former training has fitted them for high school or college work. The lowest grade corresponds to the first grade in the public schools, and those in it are learning the alphabet, with the dream of learning to read and write spurring them on to hard study. Most of the prisoners are in the division corresponding to the second

The work is not compulsory and is done after work hours on three days of the week. About a third of the prisoners requested permission to take the work. Their department in the school room has been good and their eagerness to learn gratifying to their instructors. Warden Fenton favors the night school on the ground that it makes for better discipline and deportment at the institution, as well as fitting the men better to care for themselves after they regain their liberty.

HOLD SERVICE OVER LOST SUBMARINE

PLYMOUTH, England, March 6.—

With impressive ceremony, a funeral service was read today for the eleven men who perished with the lost submarine A-7, hope of recovering which has been abandoned by the admiralty. While the burial rites of the Anglican church were read aboard the cruiser Forth, standing by over the spot in Plymouth Sound, where the A-7 is supposed to be buried in the sand, a duplicate service was read in the royal navy barracks at Koyham. Thirteen submarines, most of them of the A-7 class stood by the Forth while the funeral service was taking place.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.

At a regular meeting of the city council held Monday evening an important change was made in the city government. By a unanimous vote the old special city charter in force since 1889 was discarded and the new general charter provided for Wisconsin cities was adopted.

The council also authorized the board of education to investigate the cost of erecting a new high school building for Prairie du Chien. It is likely that members of the board will visit other towns in this section of the state in order to inspect up-to-date school buildings before consulting an architect.

Mrs. J. J. Ruka and Mrs. John J. Blaine of Roscoe were visitors in Prairie du Chien Wednesday and Thursday. The Roscoe Women's club will edit the Dial Enterprise for the benefit of the Roscoe public library, on some date in April. Mrs.

Blaine and Mrs. Ruka came to Prairie du Chien to obtain information concerning the edition of the Courier published by the local library board on February 21.

Capt. O. O. Wiard, a social betterment worker from Chicago, will speak at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Special music will be furnished for the evening.

Mrs. J. I. Keller entertained a number of ladies Monday afternoon at a library social chat.

Mrs. W. R. Graves and Mrs. H. E. Howe entertained at cards for the library Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Graves. The company included Messrs. and Mesdames E. L. Fos, L. G. Jeglum, A. H. Wulke, H. E. Howe and W. R. Graves; Mrs. Helen Thompson, Miss Augusta Abel, Miss Belle Houston and Thomas Woolley.

A new 20 horse power boiler was installed this week at the plant of the Viola Creamery company. An addition to the creamery will be built this coming season and other improvements added.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Klegin moved Wednesday into the Stephan house vacated by the Ackerman family. Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman will locate in Gays Mills where Mr. Ackerman is in charge of a drug store. The house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Klegin will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Deters who came to Prairie du Chien from St. Louis recently.

Mrs. George Huard entertained a company of ladies at the Huard home on Minnesota street Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Mann entertained the St. Vincent de Paul sewing circle on Thursday afternoon.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society meets Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bennetts.

Friends here have received announcements of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Silas Shervin of Rushford, Minn., on Monday, March 2. Mrs. Shervin was formerly Miss Lelah Ryder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryder of Prairie du Chien.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gardner and little son of Plattville arrived Wednesday for a few days' visit with the latter's parents. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Pinkerton, Mr. Gardner is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis performed a short time ago.

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

A medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles which has been thoroughly tested for many years, and which has been instrumental in restoring complete health to a large number of sufferers, should be thoroughly investigated by everyone. While no undue claims are made for it, nor any guarantee that its use will restore health, Eckman's Alternative has been given the full credit in saving lives in many cases. Read this case:—

"Gentlemen:—In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners of Wilmington, Del., said that it was lung trouble. I took eggs and milk in quantities, but I got very weak. Mr. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott & Co., Department Store, 306 to 314 Market street, Wilmington, Del., recommended to me Eckman's Alternative that had done great good, and upon his suggestion I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life."

(Affidavit). JAS. SQUIRES.

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stomach Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Sold by Geo. E. Mariner, Chas. A. Beyschlag and leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.

Remedy Used By Three Generations

Mothers Who Took it When Children Now Giving it to Their Children

There must be genuine merit in an article that has stood the test of two generations of users. In the field of medicine none has had greater success, nor retained that success to a greater degree, than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is now being used by three generations of people. Its use in families is constantly becoming more general. The reason, primarily, is that it has merit. It is what it represents itself to be, a laxative; it does not make exaggerated claims nor use coarse language to set forth its virtues.

It is a medicine, but so mild and gentle a medicine that thousands of mothers give it to tiny infants, and yet, in a slightly larger dose, it is equally effective for grown-ups. It is for any disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels, for constipation no matter how chronic, for dyspepsia no matter how severe, for biliousness, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating and similar complaints arising from a clogged-up condition of the bowels. It is pleasant to the taste and does not gripe. It can be used with safety and good results by anyone at any age or in any condition of health, and that person's health will improve. Every druggist sells it and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Thousands of families throughout the country are never without Syrup Pepsin in the house, among them Mrs. W. A. Taylor, 717 Lincoln Ave., Beloit, Wis. She has five children and gives Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to all of them as needed. Little William used to cry half the night with cramps and pain, but since being given Syrup Pepsin he does so no longer. The use of this remedy will teach you to avoid cathartics, salts, purgatives and physics generally as they are entirely too harsh. Syrup Pepsin cures gradually, but the cure is comfortable, safe and permanent.

WM. ROSWELL TAYLOR

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

MUST LOSE BOND IF LAW IS BROKEN

The District Attorney Must Bring Action Against Law Breaking Saloonkeepers Says Owen

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—(Special.)—When the bond of a saloonkeeper is violated it shall be the duty of the district attorney to bring an action in the name of the state to recover the amount of $500 due the state as forfeiture. This is the opinion of Attorney General Walter C. Owen to District Attorney David Bogue of Columbia county.

Saloonkeepers who sell liquor to habitual drunkards, to posted persons, or to minors are guilty of a breach of the bond under this opinion and it is made the duty of the district attorney to prosecute on his own initiative. Although saloonkeepers of the state have always been required to give a bond of $500, the investigation made by the attorney general's department does not disclose that there has ever been an action to collect the forfeiture as the result of a violation. Because Mr. Bogue considered the statute somewhat ambiguous he submitted the question to the attorney general for an opinion.

UNIVERSITY NOT FOR MAIL HOUSES

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—The policy of the University of Wisconsin is not to discriminate against retailers and favor mail order houses. So declare the board of regents of the university in a resolution following an investigation of charges preferred against university professors by the Wisconsin Retail Lumber Dealers' association and the Wisconsin Retail Hardware association.

"These resolutions charge the distribution of mail order and catalogue price lists by members of the university staff, and also charge the university professors with favoring mail order houses," says the report of the board. "It appears that a mimeographed price list containing mail order house quotations was distributed in a lecture on 'The Use of the Forge and the Shop' given at the agricultural building at the time of the farmers' course. This list was distributed at no other time or place. On careful inquiry it further appears that no other lists of like kind have been distributed by any members of the university staff."

COLD INCREASES FIRES

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—Cold weather fire dangers swelled the number of February blazes noticeably, according to State Fire Marshal Clem Host's monthly report. There were 45 fires from stoves or stovepipes too near wood, with losses of $49,365; 43 fires from chimneys and sparks, with loss of $53,785; and 13 from heating pipes too near wood. There were ten incendiary and suspicious blazes, with total damage of $13,690. Eight fires from defective furnaces brought $46,350 loss. There were 5 of unknown origin, with damage of $43,335. The total number of fires was 236, with damage of $291,080 and insurance of $831,515. For February, 1913, fires numbered 218, damage $213,515, and insurance $620,470.

PLAN ENGINEERING RESEARCH

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—An engineering experiment station has been created by the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin. This organization will be established in the college of engineering and will have general charge of the testing and research work of the college.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need) apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

RUSHFORD, MINN.

Gust Vogen, Helmer Johnson and John J. Johnson of Grover were recent callers in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wenneson, formerly of Peterson, but more recently of Minot, N. D., have recently had a great sorrow laid upon them in the loss of their son Edwin, a most promising young lad of about 16 years of age. The young man had been ill with appendicitis and had submitted to an operation, which was successful, but when well on the road to recovery pneumonia set in and rendered him so weak that even the best medical skill could not avail.

A basket social is scheduled for next Saturday evening at Choice, under the auspices of the Choice school. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school and all are cordially invited to attend.

Verna, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Johnson, is ill with what is feared to be lung fever.

A fierce blaze from a burning chimney at the John Dahl home in Brooklyn might have resulted very seriously a few days ago, had not the firemen responded promptly to the call sent in and put out the flames before they had a chance to spread. The chimney was ruined, but this was the extent of the damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Langlie of Lanesboro have recently adopted a little nine months' old baby girl from the Children's home in Minneapolis. The home is represented by Mrs. James Thompson, a former Lanesboro lady, who has often visited this city and has many friends here.

At the collection taken at the Rushford Presbyterian Sunday school last Sunday, the amount of $6.72 was collected for Miss Georgiana Jones, a young colored girl whom the Sunday school of the presbytery are aiding in securing an education down at Crockett, Texas. The Missionary societies of the different churches are also aiding another young girl, Miss Mabel Miller, to finish her schooling at Engleide, Virginia.

Among those from this city who attended the recent three days' meeting at Lanesboro were Rev. Isberg, Rev. E. Jaastad, Rev. Kr. Magleson and Rev. Savig. The meetings were held for the purpose of promoting a

From Utica, a few miles from this city, comes the report of the injuries of Miss Lydia Mueller of that place. The young lady was dipping boiling water from a boiler on the stove with a pail, when the bail of the pail broke and the scalding water deluged her body on one side, her face, arms and shoulder suffering the worst injuries. She is resting as comfortably as possible at present writing.

Kidney Disease Is Deceptive

Most Cases of Serious Sickness Due to Kidney Disorders Say Medical Experts.

The most deplorable feature of kidney disease consists in its subtle and elusive character, an so insidious are its ravages that many victims do not suspect its existence until the advanced stages have been reached. In nine out of ten cases, the individual thinks he or she is suffering from neuralgia, heart weakness, indigestion, or other forms of disease, when the pain in reality is due to hidden trouble with the kidneys. For many years diseases of the kidneys baffled the skill of medical experts. Since the discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy relief has been afforded to sufferers from this dread malady. Thousands of afflicted men, women and children have been restored to health and happiness and the activities and pleasures of life—many of whom thought their days were numbered, as they had been given up by their physicians. This is a remedy you should not fail to try, it reduces the inflammation and strengthens and invigorates the organs, enabling them to properly perform their work of secretion and elimination. At druggists in 50c and $1.00 sizes—every bottle guaranteed. Free sample if you write Warner's Remedies Co., Dept. 422, Rochester, N. Y.

fortably as possible at present writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wood, who were wedded recently at Winona, have gone from the latter place to Money Creek, where they will settle down to housekeeping some time this month. Mrs. Wood was formerly Miss Belle Vier of Rushford vicinity, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delo Vier.

The entertainment given at the Opera House a few evenings ago by Mr. and Mrs. Regnier was thoroughly appreciated by all who were in attendance. Both these people are artists in their line of work and will be given a very enthusiastic welcome should they ever appear in our city again.

Mrs. Mike Burke of Ferry street is spending a few days with her parents who reside a few miles from this city.

Mr. Cartner, who for some time has been employed as machinist by the Motor Sales company of this city, has gone to Indianapolis, Ind., to work.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Rushford Lutheran church held their regular meeting Thursday, March 5, at the church basement. The hostesses for the day were Mesdames E. Jaastad, S. Jaastad, W. W. Parish, A. S. Steeland, O. Marckgard and C. Vogen.

The Houston Dramatic club, which played "The Girl of the Sunny West" here, made a good impression upon the audience which saw the play and may be sure of a very cordial welcome should they visit this city again.

Mrs. Groezinger, the mother of Mrs. John Banly of this city, met with quite a painful accident last Sunday at the home of her daughter. In going across the kitchen floor, in some way her foot slipped and she fell to the floor, twisting her foot beneath her. While the injury is not a serious one, it is nevertheless a very painful one. She is able to be up and around at present writing, but the member is yet quite swollen and painful.

Mrs. Katherine Johnson of Ferry street has sold her land located in the southeastern part of the city, to Mr. J. G. Robertson of the State bank. Martin Nelson, we understand, has bought part of the land from Mr. Robertson, who paid the sum of $500 for the property in the first place.

Ole Overland of Ambrose, N. D., has returned to that city after a several months' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Overland of Bratsberg.

Mrs. John Bratland, who has been in La Crosse, has returned to her home.

The Iverson club of this city announces that on the evening of Friday, March 6, there will be held a meeting at the Opera house in this city, at which Mr. Samuel Iverson will speak. All who are interested in the questions of the hour are cordially invited to be present.

Roy Hauge of Choice has been a recent visitor in this city.

The play, "Our Wives," given by the Peterson Dramatic company, will be given at Whalen next Friday evening.

Miss Melfard of this city has been a recent guest of her friend, Miss Dahl of Peterson.

Tobias Medhaug has been a recent visitor at Peterson.

HUERTA STEADILY LOSES HIS POWER

Has Been Sliding Down for Whole Year Since He Declared Himself
Dictator

WON THE PLACE BY TREACHERY

Went Over to Diaz and Betrayed Madero to His Death a Year Ago

(Written for the United Press by an American in Mexico.)

VERA CRUZ, March 6.—Just a year ago Victoriano Huerta took possession of the Mexican government and in spite of murders, treachery, oppression and the hundreds of other names he has taken to keep himself in power, each day has seen him slipping further downward on his bloody, self-constructed skids. A review of the 300 and more days that Huerta has been in power discloses that on no single day has he been as strong as on the day before; there has not been a minute in his career as dictator, that he has seen reasons for hoping that the end of his grim road would bring him peace and success.

Just a year ago the terrible "donna tragica," as the Mexicans call it—"the bloody ten days"—took place. Francisco Madero, who had driven Diaz from Mexico a little over a year before, sat in his presidential office in the palace; Huerta was one of his generals; his ablest general, in fact. Matters were more or less peaceful in the capital, though Orozco, in the north had turned against his old time commander, Madero, because Madero had taken into his government many of the men—"graffers" Orozco called them—who had been associated with Diaz. But Orozco held only Juarez and Chihuahua and had been hopelessly defeated by Huerta himself, a short time before.

But, up to the palace, on the morning of February 8, marched a crowd of soldiers, headed by Generals Reyes and Felix Diaz. Diaz had corrupted a part of the army and it had gone with him to seize the palace. Thousands of Mexican citizens filled the great park opposite the palace, as Diaz and Reyes marched up to the portals; they were onlookers of a historical event, and, in truth, one of the bloodiest events of Mexican history. Out of the portals of the palace issued a band of soldiers. Diaz and Reyes expected them to yield up the palace; that had been the plan. But somehow the plan went astray. From the gateway came a burst of bullets. From the roof of the palace came a deluge of machine gun fire. A bullet went through Reyes' forehead. Soldiers fell by scores. But, worst of all, the onlookers in the park were caught by the rain of death. They fell in heaps and mounds, dead and dying, men, women and children. Like people in a theater fire panic they rushed from the park, seeking the side streets, but the bullets mowed them down. Again, in the terrible history of Mexico, a dynasty was fighting for its life and what mattered the lives of a thousand or more onlookers? A thousand of them fell there under the palms and eucalyptus trees in the park. Only the dark ages show more terrible sights than that. And what is to be said of the hours that followed on that Sunday morning, when the wounded lay screaming in the sun? When physicians who passed among them were themselves wounded and killed? Or, of the next two days, when the dead were piled in mounds and burned after being covered with oil? Or, the third day, when a gas main was punctured and the escaping gas was lighted and converted into a 20th century funeral pyre over which bodies were placed to be consumed by the gas flames? The fire from the palace drove Diaz back. Many of his men deserted. His band hurried into a side street, where they gathered around their puzzled leader.

"Something is wrong," said Diaz. "These palace soldiers were to have surrendered."

"What will you do now?" asked an American friend of Diaz, who came hurrying to the spot.

"I must get away. We must all fly," said Diaz.

"Why not go to the arsenal?" suggested the American. Diaz's face lighted. Such a move had not occurred to him. At the arsenal were all the elements necessary for fighting.

Takes Arsenal

"To the arsenal," he cried out to his men. They dashed a mile through the streets on horseback and on foot. At the arsenal there were only a few soldiers. Four of them were killed by Diaz's men, and within a few moments Diaz was safe behind the heavy walls of the great stone building, surrounded by more ammunition, guns and cannon than he could use. Then began ten days of fighting, with shells flying over the city; with tens of thousands of citizens locked in their homes; with hundreds killed in the side streets.

"Don't worry," President Madero would tell the newspapermen who, by devious means, found their way to the palace every day. "We'll whip them soon." But, on the tenth day, at noon, an astonishing thing happened. A representative of General Victoriano Huerta, Madero's standby, the man on whom the president depended mostly for safety, marched into Madero's office in the palace, and arrested him. Almost, at the same time, Huerta himself, who had invited Gustavo Medrano, brother of the president to dine with him at a cafe, laid his hand on Gustavo's shoulder and said, "You're under arrest."

The dynasty of Madero had fallen.

Huerta's treachery became apparent.

It had been his duty to overcome Diaz; instead, he had plotted with Diaz and together they had decided to put the Maderos out of the way and take over the government themselves. The fighting ceased. Huerta was declared provisional president. The two Maderos were put in jail. The next day the news went out that Gustavo Madero had been killed. A band of soldiers had taken him into the yard of the arsenal and had said, "We'll give you a chance to run away. Now go as fast as you can." And while he ran they had shot him dead, according to the brutal Mexican custom known as "the law flight." The world looked on, awaiting the fate of Francisco Madero. Those who knew most of Mexican ways felt that nothing but Madero's death could be expected the world at large could hardly believe that he would be slain. A few days later newspaper correspondents were called to the palace at midnight and informed that Madero, the former president, had been slain.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS.

Twelve older boys of the Y. M. C. A. have received authority from the Crowell Publishing Co. of New York to compete in the contest for a free trip to San Francisco exposition via Panama canal and return via the Grand Canyon.

The requirements consist of the securing of a certain number of subscriptions to the Woman's Home companion or the American Magazine. Should any of these young men call upon you it is hoped that you will hear their proposition and if possible aid them in their worthy scheme.

Neither the motive of the publishing company or the possibility of ultimate success can be for one moment questioned, but it is in your power to make the trip a sure thing for the boys with little effort on their part.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, March 6.—Pronounced weakness in Chesapeake & Ohio was the feature at the opening of the stock market today, but other stocks, with the exception of Baltimore & Ohio, were firm, with no notable change in prices. The attendance was small and dealing largely professional.

11 a. m.—There was a heavy selling movement at the end of the first hour, accompanied by a general decline. Although there was quite a lowering in Chesapeake & Ohio, the price broke to 54 5/8, a new loss of 1 3/8.

Noon.—United States Steel was a tower of strength in the market during the second hour and had it not been for firmness in that stock the whole list probably would have declined to a considerably greater extent than it did. Traders were bearish on Canadian Pacific, M. K. & T. stocks became weak, the preferred selling down 3 7/8.

2 p. m.—Prices recovered in the early afternoon. There was some covering of shorts by traders who were impressed with the power of resistance shown by the standard issues in the face of the weakness shown in Chesapeake & Ohio and a few other stocks. Notable strength was shown by Brooklyn Rapid Transit.

The stock market closed with an increase of selling pressure, as the slight rally abruptly ended.

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, March 6.—Bearish news from Liverpool caused an easier feeling in the local wheat pit at the start today but there was plenty of buying on the dip and a rally that brought prices at noon from a fraction to 1-4c above last night's closing figures. Receipts northwest were light, giving the bulls an argument.

Corn futures were lower earlier in the day but buying improved toward noon and noon prices were about the same as at last night's close. Lower Liverpool cables held prices down.

Oats were under depression at the start and prices eased off a fraction but at the decline resting orders to buy checked further downward movement.

Provisions had the support of a strong hog market today and were firm and higher from the start.

Wheat and corn were a trifle stronger toward the close, making fractional gains in the afternoon. Oats buying increased after noon and futures gained 1-4c for each month.

Provisions continued to move upward until the close.

SPORT NEWS

RITCHIE FAVORITE IN WOLGAST MAGTH

Betting Odds 5 to 4 on the Champ but Former Title Holder Declares He Has Willie Outclassed

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 6.—With just a week more to train in, Ad Wolgast is but three pounds over the required notch he will have to make for the battle with Willie Ritchie here next Thursday night.

Performing before 300 fans at Morgenroth's Wednesday afternoon, Ad put in a hard hour and a half of work. Starting with shadow boxing, the former champion went through all of a fighter's training stunts from pulleys to real boxing. He went three rounds apiece with Young Pinky and Freddie Andrews, which left him in fine perspiration. He wound up the day with some pulley work.

"I can't account for it," said Ad, after winding up the afternoon. "I never had so much ambition. Right now I am in better condition than when I fought Rivers. I feel better, am fighting better, and I can't remember when I had so much desire for real hard work as I have at the present time."

Wolgast, when he hopped on the scales, did not show a trace of fat. He was sleek as a kid and looked perfect as far as health and condition are concerned.

"I see Ritchie is a favorite over me," said Ad, "but I also notice that the odds (they are at 5 to 4) are not just what they ought to be, considering the fact that he is champion. I don't suppose they will fall to even money, but I am willing to wager they will shorten considerably when the fans find out that I am in shape."

FEDS OUT IN COLD AS EXILES RETURN

World Tourists Met at the Dock Only by Organized Ball Officials

OUTLAWS USE THE WIRELESS

Get Message to Speaker that Magnates Will Wait to See Them in Hotel

BY HAL SHERIDAN.
(Written for the United Press.)
NEW YORK, March 6.—They're here!

While thousands of people jammed the pier of the Cunard line in North river, cheering themselves hoarse, waving flags, banners and handkerchiefs, the liner Lusitania was warped into her dock at 10:35 today, bringing the world touring Giants and White Sox back home.

Organized baseball was in full possession of the Lusitania. The Federal leaders were unable to get a boat and being unable to obtain passes had to be content with waiting on the pier. Ban Johnson, President Lannin of Boston and President Baker of Philadelphia, acted as a rounding up committee on board the Lusitania as soon as the liner was boarded at quarantine.

The Federals, however, had resorted to the wireless and Tris Speaker, star outfielder of the Red Sox, had a Marconigram from President Gilmore and the Federal league officials, asking Speaker to tell all the boys "the Federal league magnates would be waiting at the Knickerbocker hotel, ready to do business."

The first players greeted by the waiting officials of organized baseball at the dock was Speaker. Then they talked with Mike Doolan of the Phillies, Ivy Wingo of the Cardinals, and Sam Crawford of Detroit.

Later President Lannin of Boston said: "I have Speaker's word that he will not sign with the Federals. That is enough for me. I would not be surprised if he signed a contract to play with Boston before night."

President Lannin adds that everyone of the men gave them assurances that nothing would be done hastily.

The ferry Niagara bearing the Chicago rooters who came here to greet the White Sox, escorted the Lusitania up the bay.

While the band on the Niagara crashed out lively airs the Chicago fans risked their lives to lean far out over the rail in an effort to shriek out words of greeting to Comiskey and Callahan and members of the teams who appeared on deck.

Ban Johnson, President Farrell of the Yankees, President Ebbitts of Brooklyn and the other baseball officials made the trip down on the revenue cutter to greet the Lusitania. A gale was blowing a blinding snow storm ahead of them, but big Ban and the others slipped and slid over the cutter deck until they climbed into the pilot house.

Every member of the party was browned by the tropical sun, and was the picture of health. All said they were ready to start the regular season right now. Callahan and McGraw declared the teams were greeted with tremendous enthusiasm at every point. The trip was a great financial success, McGraw said, but the exact figures are not yet available.

KING TO ATTEND FISTIC BATTLES

LONDON, March 6.—Boxing enthusiasts were jubilant today following the announcement that King George despite the outcry against professional pugilism, will attend boxing contests at the barracks of the Second Life Guards, of which regiment he is colonel. In addition to regimental contests, there will be fights between a number of professionals, including Bombardier Wells.

WAR TO THE FINISH DECLARES JOHNSON

NEW YORK, March 6.—"The Federal league must be exterminated. We will not countenance any arrangement of peace between organized baseball and these four-flushers and bluffers. The American league herewith declares war on the Federals and intends to go through to the finish."

In such vitriolic terms did Ban B. Johnson, president of the American league, make known last night for the first time the stand of the organized baseball crowd toward the independents.

GIRL LANDS A K. O. IN FOURTH ROUND

PARIS, March 6.—Mlle. M. Carpentier, 20, today was declared the female pugilist champion, following her knockout of Mlle. Warner in the fourth round of a six round bout at Chantilly, which was witnessed by 400 persons. Mlle. Warner forced the pace at the start and the first two rounds were slightly in her favor. Mlle. Carpentier opened up in the third and fourth rounds, however,

CHI WOULD DOWN BADGERS

CHICAGO, March 6.—With the hope of grabbing off one game from the undefeated University of Wisconsin quintet, the Maroon basketball squad left for Madison today for their last battle of the conference session. A victory will give Chicago second place in the conference.

"TWIN" LICKS GEYER

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 6.—Jack ("Twin") Sullivan of Boston won the decision over Jack Geyer of Denver in their ten round mill here last night. Sullivan was leading up to the tenth round, when a foul by Geyer ended the fight.

SOX DEFEATED

OAKLAND, Cal., March 6.—Acting Manager Gleason of the Chicago White Sox, was not at all discouraged today over the showing of the Sox in yesterday's game when the Oakland team routed the visitors, 7 to 5. The discovery that his outfielders really could hit pleased Gleason.

NORMAL FIVE TO PLAY RIVER FALLS

Last Game of Normal Basketball Schedule Will Be Played at Gym Saturday Night

The La Crosse normal basketball team will clash with River Falls in what will probably be the last game of the season, tomorrow night at the normal gym. Should La Crosse win from River Falls, which seems probable, and Stevens Point lose, which is not quite so probable, La Crosse will have a chance to fight out a tie for the western division title. Otherwise the La Crosse team will be out of the running for division or state honors.

Tomorrow night's game will doubtless be one of the fastest played here this season, the teams being almost evenly matched. La Crosse downed River Falls by one point on the latter's court. The La Crosse men are confident of a victory in as much as they will be able to play

SCHWEIZER PLAYS IN STATE TOURNNEY

MADISON, Wis., March 6.—Alex Elmslie of Milwaukee, former amateur state champion, easily defeated Charlie Christenson of Madison, at 18.2 billiards last night at the Elks' club house. The score was 300 to 89. Elmslie had a high run of 38. Chas. Schweizer, the La Crosse crack, met Ray Fessenden, present title holder, of this city, Thursday night, and on Saturday Elmslie and Fessenden meet for the title. In the present series Fessenden holds a 300 to 110 victory over Christenson.

CROSS WINS BOUT

NEW YORK, March 6.—Fight fans today pointed to aggressiveness and experience as the combination which enabled Leach Cross to outpoint Phil Bloom of Williamsburg in their ten round mill before the Empire Athletic club last night. Cross showed the ill effects of his layoff since New Years as his delivery was wild and he was slow on his feet.

John Says:—

We Need A More Elastic Currency

Maybe this administration will give it to us and maybe they won't, and in the meantime we've got to make the money stretch as far as possible.

Now, men, here's a real tip:

You can make your money go a long ways if you buy one of my SUITS at $10, $12.50, $15 or $18.—They're all wool, the very best materials, fit tailored right in, nobby styles, and you save all the way from $5 to $10 in real money.

You can't beat it, men. Take a look at these garments and see for yourselves that what I'm telling is fact.
